CHUCK NOLL

The second-winningest active coach and fifth-winningest in the history of the NFL, 59-year old Chuck Noll begins his 23rd season as the Steelers' head coach in 1991. His overall career record of 202-147-1 (.579) makes him one of only five coaches in NFL history to win 200 games.

Noll's 202 wins are topped by only George Halas (325), Don Shula (297), Tom Landry (270), and Curly Lambeau (234). Shula, Noll's former boss with the Baltimore Colts, is the only current coach with more wins and the only active NFL coach who has been a head coach longer than Noll's 23 years. But Noll has been in charge of the same team longer than any of the NFL's current coaches and is one of just four men — Lambeau (29), Landry (29), and Steve Owen (23) — to lead the same team for 23 consecutive seasons.

Noll's overall record includes a 186-139-1 (.572) regular season mark and 16-8 in postseason. His postseason winning percentage of .667 ranks sixth in NFL history and is second among the six coaches who have been in 15 or more postseason contests. It also includes four Super Bowl wins, which distinguish Noll as the only coach in league history to claim four Super Bowl titles.

Noll was named the 14th head coach in Steelers history on Jan. 27, 1969. He brought with him a solid belief in building through the draft. His first draft class included such future stars as Hall of Famer Joe Greene, Jon Kolb, and L. C. Greenwood. A 1-13 inaugural season gave Noll the first overall pick of the 1970 draft, which he used to select Hall of Famers Terry Bradshaw on the first round and Mel Blount on the third. In fact, Noll selected five players in his first four draft classes who are now members of the Hall of Fame, including three of his first 20 and four of his first 38 draft picks. Records of 5-9 and 6-8 in Noll's second and third seasons reflected the progress his young team was making.

In 1972 the Steelers turned the corner with an 11-3 campaign for their first division title in the club's 40-year history. They won a thrilling 13-7 playoff game over Oakland before losing to Miami 21-17 in the AFC Championship, but this began a streak of eight years of postseason play.

In 1973 the Steelers claimed a wild card playoff berth but lost to Oakland 33-14 in the wild card game. The following year Noll got his second division title and the first of six consecutive as he led the Steelers to a 10-3-1 finish. But the Steelers were not finished yet as they defeated Buffalo (32-14) and Oakland (24-13) en route to Super Bowl IX. A 16-6 domination of Minnesota handed Noll and the Steelers their first Super Bowl trophy.

In 1975 the Steelers became the third team, joining Green Bay (Super Bowls I and II) and Miami (VII and VIII) to repeat as Super Bowl champion. They plowed through the regular season with a 12-2 record before dispatching Baltimore (28-10) and Oakland (16-10) in the playoffs and Dallas (21-17) in Super Bowl X. Noll joined Vince Lombardi and Shula as the only coaches to win two Super Bowls.

The Steelers struggled in 1976, starting 1-4 before nine straight wins left them at 10-4 to win the AFC Central division. They downed Baltimore 40-14 in the playoffs but could not beat Oakland, losing 24-7. A 9-5 finish in 1977 preceded the Steelers' 34-21 playoff loss to Denver.

In 1978 Noll got his team back on track as they posted a league best 14-2 record. They dominated Denver (33-10) and Houston (34-5) in the playoffs to set up a Super Bowl rematch vs. Dallas in Super Bowl XIII. The Steelers' 35-31 win made them the first team to win three Super Bowls.

The Steelers made history one more time after a 12-4 campaign in 1979 and postseason wins over Miami (34-14) and Houston (27-13). Their 31-19 Super Bowl XIV win over the Los Angeles Rams gave the Steelers an unprecented fourth Super Bowl championship and the title, "Team of the Decade."

Noll's 1980 and 1981 teams fell short with 9-7 and 8-8 records, but in 1982, the Steelers' 50th season, the team rebounded to a 6-3 finish in a strike-interrupted season. They lost their playoff game, however, 31-28 to San Diego.

In 1983 and 1984 Noll claimed his eighth and ninth division titles. The 1983 team went 10-6 before losing to the Los Angeles Raiders in the play-offs, 38-10. In 1984 the team advanced as far as the AFC Championship game with a 9-7 regular season mark and a 24-17 playoff win in Denver. The hope for a fifth Super Bowl appearance vanished in the Steelers' 45-28 AFC Championship loss to Miami.

Noll's longest playoff drought lasted from 1985-88, but he ended that in 1989 with a 9-7 team that claimed an AFC wild card berth as it won five of its final six games. The team showed its character by bouncing back from an 0-2 start in which the Steelers were outscored 92-10. They proved their character again in a 26-23 overtime playoff win in Houston, and the following week dominated Denver before losing 24-23 in the final minutes. Noll was rewarded by being named AFC Coach of the Year for the first time by the Professional Football Writers of America.

In 1990 Noll's young team struggled through a 1-3 start before finishing the season at 9-7 and in a three-way tie for first place in the AFC Central. They were eliminated from the playoffs, however, in tie-breaker procedures.

Noll's 39-year pro football career includes seven seasons as a player, nine as an assistant coach, and 23 as a head coach. He began as a 21st-round draft choice of the Cleveland Browns in 1953, where he played guard and linebacker through 1959. He retired at the age of 27 and began his coaching career in 1960 as an assistant to Sid Gillman with the Los Angeles Chargers.

In 1966 Noll joined Shula's Baltimore Colts staff for a three-year stint that included a total of seven losses and a Super Bowl III loss to the New York Jets. Following Super Bowl III, Noll was named head coach of the Steelers.

Charles Henry Noll was born in Cleveland, Ohio on January 5, 1932. He attended Holy Trinity School and Benedictine High prior to enrolling at Dayton, where he studied education and was captain of the football team and is a charter member of the school's athletic hall of fame. Noll was graduated from Dayton in 1953 with a bachelor of science degree in education, and in 1980 he was presented a Distinguished Alumni Award. He also has two honorary degrees, receiving a Ph.D. in humanitarian service from Duquesne in 1980 and a Ph.D. in commercial science from Robert Morris College in 1990. Noll and his wife Marianne have one son, Chris. The Nolls live in Upper St. Clair.

ASSISTANT COACHES

RON BLACKLEDGE

Offensive Line Coach

Ron Blackledge enters his 10th season on the Steelers staff and his 33rd year in coaching. He joined the Steelers on Aug. 31, 1982 as an offensive assistant. From 1984-88 Blackledge shared the offensive line coaching duties, focusing on the tackles and tight ends. He took over responsibility for the entire line in 1989. Blackledge's 33 years in coaching include 9 seasons at the high school level in Canton, Oh., 14 in college, and 10 in the NFL.

A native of North Canton, Oh., Blackledge's first coaching position was at Canton South High in 1960. He also coached at Timken (1963-65) and Glenwood (1966-67) high schools in Canton before moving on to Ashland College as offensive line coach in 1968. Following 2 years at Ashland were stints as offensive line coach for Cincinnati (1970-72), Kentucky (1973-75), and Princeton (1976).

Blackledge was named offensive coordinator at Kent State in 1977. He served as that school's head coach from 1979-81.

Blackledge played tight end and defensive end for Bowling Green from 1957-59. He was graduated with a bachelors degree in physical education in 1960, and in 1967 he received his masters in guidance and physical education from Ohio University.

DAVE BRAZIL

Defensive Coordinator

Dave Brazil is in his second year as an NFL coordinator after being promoted to defensive coordinator in March of 1990. He joined the Steelers on Feb. 9, 1989 as linebackers coach after 5 seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs.

Brazil is a veteran of 32 years of coaching, including 10 at the high school level, 12 in college, and 10 at the professional level.

In 1968 Brazil got his first college job at Holy Cross, where he spent 2 seasons as offensive and defensive coordinator. He followed that with 2 years as defensive coordinator at Tulsa (1970-71) and 3 seasons (1972-74) as offensive and defensive coordinator for Eastern Michigan.

Brazil got his first professional coaching position in 1975 as defensive coordinator for the World Football League's Detroit Wheels. The following season he held the same post for the WFL Chicago Fire.

In 1978 Brazil returned to the college ranks, spending 2 years as Boston College's defensive coordinator and 3 (1980-82) at Kent State.

Brazil moved to the NFL in 1984 as a defensive assistant with the Kansas City Chiefs. He coached the Chiefs' secondary in 1987 and the linebackers in 1988.

Brazil was graduated in 1958 with a business administration degree from the University of Detroit.

JOHN FOX

Defensive Backs Coach

John Fox begins his third season as the Steelers' defensive backs coach after joining the team Feb. 10, 1989. His first NFL coaching position followed 3 years as defensive coordinator and secondary coach at the University of Pittsburgh.

Prior to joining the Steelers, Fox spent 10 seasons coaching defensive secondaries at 7 different colleges. He began in 1979 at U.S. International University. Following were one-year stints at Boise State (1980), Long Beach State (1981), Utah (1982), Kansas (1983), and Iowa State (1984).

Fox took his first coaching position at the professional level in 1985, coaching the defensive backs for the USFL's Los Angeles Express. He returned to the college ranks that fall, joining Mike Gottfried's staff at Kansas.

In 1986 Fox went from Kansas to Pittsburgh as defensive coordinator under Gottfried. In his first season, Fox's defense ranked ninth in the country, yielding 276.9 yards per game. The following year they jumped to fourth with 233.0 yards per game, and in 1988 finished fourth again with a 254.2-yards-per-game average including second in pass defense with 118.9 yards per game.

Fox played defensive back at San Diego State from 1975-77. He was graduated with a bachelors degree in physical education and a teaching certificate in 1977.

JOE GREENE

Defensive Line Coach

Joe Greene begins his fifth season coaching the Steelers defensive line, which is where he made a lasting mark as one of the outstanding defensive linemen ever to play in the NFL. Greene joined the Steelers' coaching staff on Feb. 19, 1987. Five months later he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility.

Greene was the first player Chuck Noll drafted in 1969, and is one of 3 Steelers assistants who also played under Noll. A perennial All-Pro defensive tackle for the Steelers for 13 seasons (1969-82), he made 10 Pro Bowl appearances in addition to many other honors. Greene retired after the 1982 season.

Greene won NFL defensive rookie of the year honors and played in the first of 8 consecutive Pro Bowls after his rookie season in 1969. He was the fourth player selected overall in the 1969 draft. The heart of the famous "Steel Curtain" defense, Greene was widely considered the most dominating defensive lineman in the NFL. He accumulated 66 career quarterback sacks and still ranks second in team history, 8 years after his retirement. Greene was named to the Steelers' All-Time Team in 1982.

A native of Temple, Tex., Greene was a consensus All-American at North Texas State.

JACK HENRY

Offensive Line Coach

Jack Henry begins his second season with the Steelers since joining the club on a full-time basis on Aug. 3, 1990. Henry spent the first two weeks of the 1990 training camp with the Steelers as a volunteer coach.

A veteran of 23 years of coaching, Henry spent 3 seasons at the high school level and 18 coaching in college.

Henry began his coaching career in 1969 at Blairsville (Pa.) High School. The following season he moved to West Virginia, returning to coach at Wheeling (W.V.) Central Catholic and Canon McMillan High Schools in 1971 and 1972.

In 1973 Henry was named offensive line coach at Edinboro State College, followed by stops at Louisville (1974) and as offensive coordinator at Millersville State (1975-76). He then coached the offensive line at Southern Illinois (1977) and West Virginia (1978) prior to serving as offensive coordinator at Appalachian State in 1979.

Henry coached at Wake Forest as offensive line coach and later as offensive coordinator from 1980-85 before moving to Indiana (Pa.) as offensive coordinator and associate head coach from 1986-89.

Henry played linebacker at Penn State from 1964-65 before completing his college career as a guard in 1967-68 at Indiana (Pa.), where he was graduated in 1969.

DICK HOAK

Offensive Backfield Coach

Dick Hoak begins his 20th season as a member of the Steelers coaching staff and his 30th year with the organization. He is the longest-tenured Steelers assistant and one of 3 current coaches who also played for Chuck Noll. Hoak's last two years as a player (1969-70) were Noll's first two as the Steelers head coach. He was named the team's offensive backfield coach in 1972 after one year of coaching high school football. Hoak is the only remaining assistant from all four Steelers Super Bowl staffs.

Hoak enjoyed an outstanding 10-year career as a Steelers running back after being drafted on the seventh round in 1961 from Penn State. He gained 3,965 career rushing yards and when he retired after the 1970 season, Hoak ranked as the second-leading rusher in team history, trailing Hall of Famer John Henry Johnson. Today, 22 years after the end of his career, Hoak is still the fourth-leading rusher behind Franco Harris, Johnson, and Frank Pollard. He was the team's rushing leader in 1965, '68, and '69, and his career-high 858 yards in 1968 ranked fourth in the NFL that year and led to his Pro Bowl appearance. He was also honored as the Dapper Dan 1968 man of the year in sports.

Hoak was a standout running back and quarterback for Penn State. He was graduated in 1961 with a degree in social studies.

JON KOLB

Tight Ends and Conditioning Coach

John Kolb is in his 23rd year with the Steelers and his 10th season as a member of the coaching staff. For the third year, he coaches the tight ends in addition to overseeing the conditioning of all of the Steelers players.

One of the 22 players who were on all four Steelers Super Bowl champion teams, Kolb is one of 3 Steelers assistants who also played for Chuck Noll. He joined the coaching staff as conditioning coach on Feb. 17, 1982, the day he announced his retirement as a player. Later that year Kolb took over as defensive line coach. After coaching the defensive line from 1982-86, Kolb coached special teams in 1987-88 and was conditioning coach and an offensive assistant in 1989.

In 1969 Kolb's career with the Steelers began as a third-round selection. He helped pave the way to four Super Bowl titles over the next 13 years from his offensive tackle position. Kolb played in 177 games to rank sixth in team history, including 156 of a possible 157 in his first 10 seasons with 112 consecutive starts.

Kolb was a second-team All-America selection at Oklahoma State. Playing center and linebacker, he was also a two-time All-Big Eight performer. He was graduated with a bachelors degree in physical education.

DWAIN PAINTER

Receivers Coach

Dwain Painter is in his fourth year with the Steelers since joining the staff on Feb. 15, 1988. He is a veteran of 27 years of coaching including 6 at the high school level, 17 in college, and 4 with the Steelers.

In 1971 Painter got his start at the college level as offensive coordinator at San Jose State. After 2 seasons he was named quarterbacks/receivers coach at the College of San Mateo, followed by 2 years as offensive coordinator at Brigham Young from 1974-75.

In Painter's next position he coached the quarterbacks and receivers at UCLA from 1976-78, leading to his first head coaching position at Northern Arizona in 1979. In three seasons Painter compiled a record of 16-17. He then served as assistant head coach for 4 years (1982-85) at Georgia Tech.

Stops as offensive coordinator at Texas in 1986 and Illinois in 1987 preceded Painter's move to the Steelers in 1988.

The 49-year old Painter attended Gateway High in Monroeville. He was the first quarterback to play for the school's successful coach, Pete Antimarino.

Painter played defensive back at Rutgers from 1961-64. He was graduated in 1964 with a bachelors degree in physical education and in 1966 received his masters in education.

GEORGE STEWART

Special Teams Coach

George Stewart begins his third season coaching the Steelers' special teams. He joined the staff on March 3, 1989 in his first NFL coaching position. Under Stewart the Steelers' special teams have shown improvement over the past two years. Kick returner Rod Woodson was the leading Pro Bowl vote-getter each of the past two seasons. He led the NFL with a 27.3-yard average on kickoff returns in 1989.

Stewart is in the ninth year of his coaching career, which began in 1983 as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Arkansas, under head coach Lou Holtz. In 1984 he followed Holtz to Minnesota as offensive line coach.

After 2 seasons at Minnesota, Stewart went with Holtz to Notre Dame in 1986. While at Notre Dame he coached the tight ends and special teams in 1986 and 1987 and the defensive ends in 1988.

As a player, Stewart was an All-America guard under Holtz at Arkansas from 1977-80. He was named to the All-Southwest Conference team as a junior when the Razorbacks were 10-2. After being named team captain his senior year, he suffered a knee injury in the fourth game which ended his college playing career.

Stewart spent 2 years in business in Little Rock, Ark. prior to returning to Arkansas as a graduate assistant.

BOB VALESENTE

Linebackers Coach

Bob Valesente was named linebackers coach on March 9, 1990 after serving as assistant head coach/defensive coordinator at the University of Pittsburgh in 1989. A veteran of 29 years of coaching, Valesente has been head coach, assistant head coach, or offensive or defensive coordinator for 7 colleges.

Valesente was freshman defensive coordinator at Cornell (1964-68), followed by 6 seasons coaching Cornell's varsity secondary (1969-74).

In 1975-76 Valesente was secondary coach at Cincinnati, followed by stops as defensive backs coach at Arizona (1977-79) and defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at Mississippi State (1980-81).

In 1982 Valesente got his first NFL coaching position as secondary/special teams coach for the Baltimore Colts. He returned to the college ranks in 1984 as assistant head coach/quarterbacks coach at Kansas under head coach Mike Gottfried. He succeeded Gottfried as head coach from 1986-87, then spent one year as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Maryland.

A graduate of Ithaca College, Valesente played halfback. He was graduated in 1962 with a bachelors in physical education and in 1965 he earned his masters in education.

JOE WALTON

Offensive Coordinator

Joe Walton became offensive coordinator on Feb. 16, 1990 after 7 seasons as head coach of the New York Jets. Beginning his 31st season in the NFL this year, Walton has been an NFL coach for the past 21 years after a 7-year playing career and 2 seasons as a scout.

Walton's NFL career began as a second-round draft choice of the Washington Redskins in 1957. He played tight end for 4 seasons for Washington (1957-60) before being traded to the New York Giants, where he played from 1961-63. He finished his career with 178 receptions for 2,623 yards and 26 touchdowns.

In 1967 Walton returned to the NFL as a scout for the Giants. Two years later he began his coaching career with a 5-year stint (1969-73) coaching the Giants' wide receivers and passing game.

Walton joined the Redskins' coaching staff in 1974 and was named offensive coordinator in 1978, a position he held for 3 seasons before moving to the Jets as offensive coordinator in 1981.

In 1983 Walton was named head coach of the Jets. He compiled an overall record of 53-57-1 in 7 seasons with the Jets.

A native of nearby Beaver Falls, Pa., Walton attended Pitt where he was an All-America tight end and linebacker from 1954-56. Walton's father, Frank ("Tiger"), was the Steelers' line coach in 1947.

His 36 consecutive starts is the longest current streak among all active Steelers and he is the only offensive lineman to start all 32 games over the past two seasons... Handles long-snapping duties on punts in addition to regular responsibilities at center... He was the sixth offensive lineman chosen in the 1988 NFL draft... In 1990 was named to the NFL all-underrated team by Pro Football Weekly... His hobby is baking cookies.

PITTSBURGH IN DETAIL

One in a series recognizing the little things that add up to Pittsburgh—the city we at Westinghouse have called home for over 100 years.

It's a Pittsburgh landmark that has stood facing the Golden Triangle for over 20 years. It contains no words, no commercial messages, not even the name of the corporation it represents. Yet, the world's first computer-controlled outdoor electric sign perfectly symbolizes the innovation and high technology that have become as unmistakably Westinghouse as its circle W logo.

Nine of the world-famous circle W logos sit atop the Westinghouse Electric Supply Company Building on Pittsburgh's North Side. Their unique neon blue message is comprised of 81 light circuits, each lit in random sequence to assemble the nine trademarks. The number of combinations that can be used to light the sign, using these 81 elements, is roughly 10,000,000,000

Behind The Promise.

It's a winning game plan. The Pittsburgh Steelers have teamed up with area schools and businesses to help children in Western Pennsylvania receive health care coverage.

Through the Caring Team Campaign, elementary, middle and high school students conduct a variety of fund-raising activities. The money, including matching funds—$196,000 in 1989 and 1990—provides primary health coverage for children of low-income families.

Besides the rewards of helping those in need, participating schools receive a variety of prizes from visits by Steelers to equipment donated by area businesses.

Blue Cross of Western Pennsylvania and Pennsylvania Blue Shield salute the students, athletes, and all Caring Team members who are protecting the community's health today—and for generations to come.

Promises Kept.

ROD WOODSON
Cornerback/
Kick Returner
6-0 197 5th year
Purdue

Exceptional athlete and two-time Pro Bowl performer as well as two-time team most valuable player... Was named co-MVP in first full season (1988), Pro Bowler in second (1989), and both in third (1990)... Got late start to career with 94-day holdout in rookie year, forcing him to miss eight games... Has earned reputation as one of the NFL's best cornerbacks and best return specialists... Was top vote-getter among all AFC kick returners for each of last two Pro Bowls, and last season was voted to start Pro Bowl at cornerback... In 1989 was the NFL's top kickoff return man to become the first Steeler to lead the NFL in kickoff return average since Lynn Chandnois did so in 1951 and 1952... Last year led team with five interceptions, bringing career total to 13, and broke Steelers all-time record for career kickoff return yardage with 2,886 yards... Was the first defensive back and the 10th player overall drafted in 1987... Finished second and third, respectively, in the 1988 and 1990 NFL Fastest Man competiton.

5-9 182 5th year
Baylor

Pound-for-pound the Steelers' hardest hitter... A very tough and physical player despite size... Has made three interceptions in each of first four NFL seasons, starting 51 of the 57 games he has played... Last year bounced back from forehead laceration suffered in opener, finishing with 35 tackles... As college senior he was the Jim Thorpe Award winner, presented annually to the nation's top defensive back, ahead of Rod Woodson... Was one of three defensive backs the Steelers drafted in the first four rounds in 1987, joining Woodson and Delton Hall... Has been a regular starter since the seventh game of his rookie season... His brother Eric is a cornerback with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers... Has nine brothers and sisters.

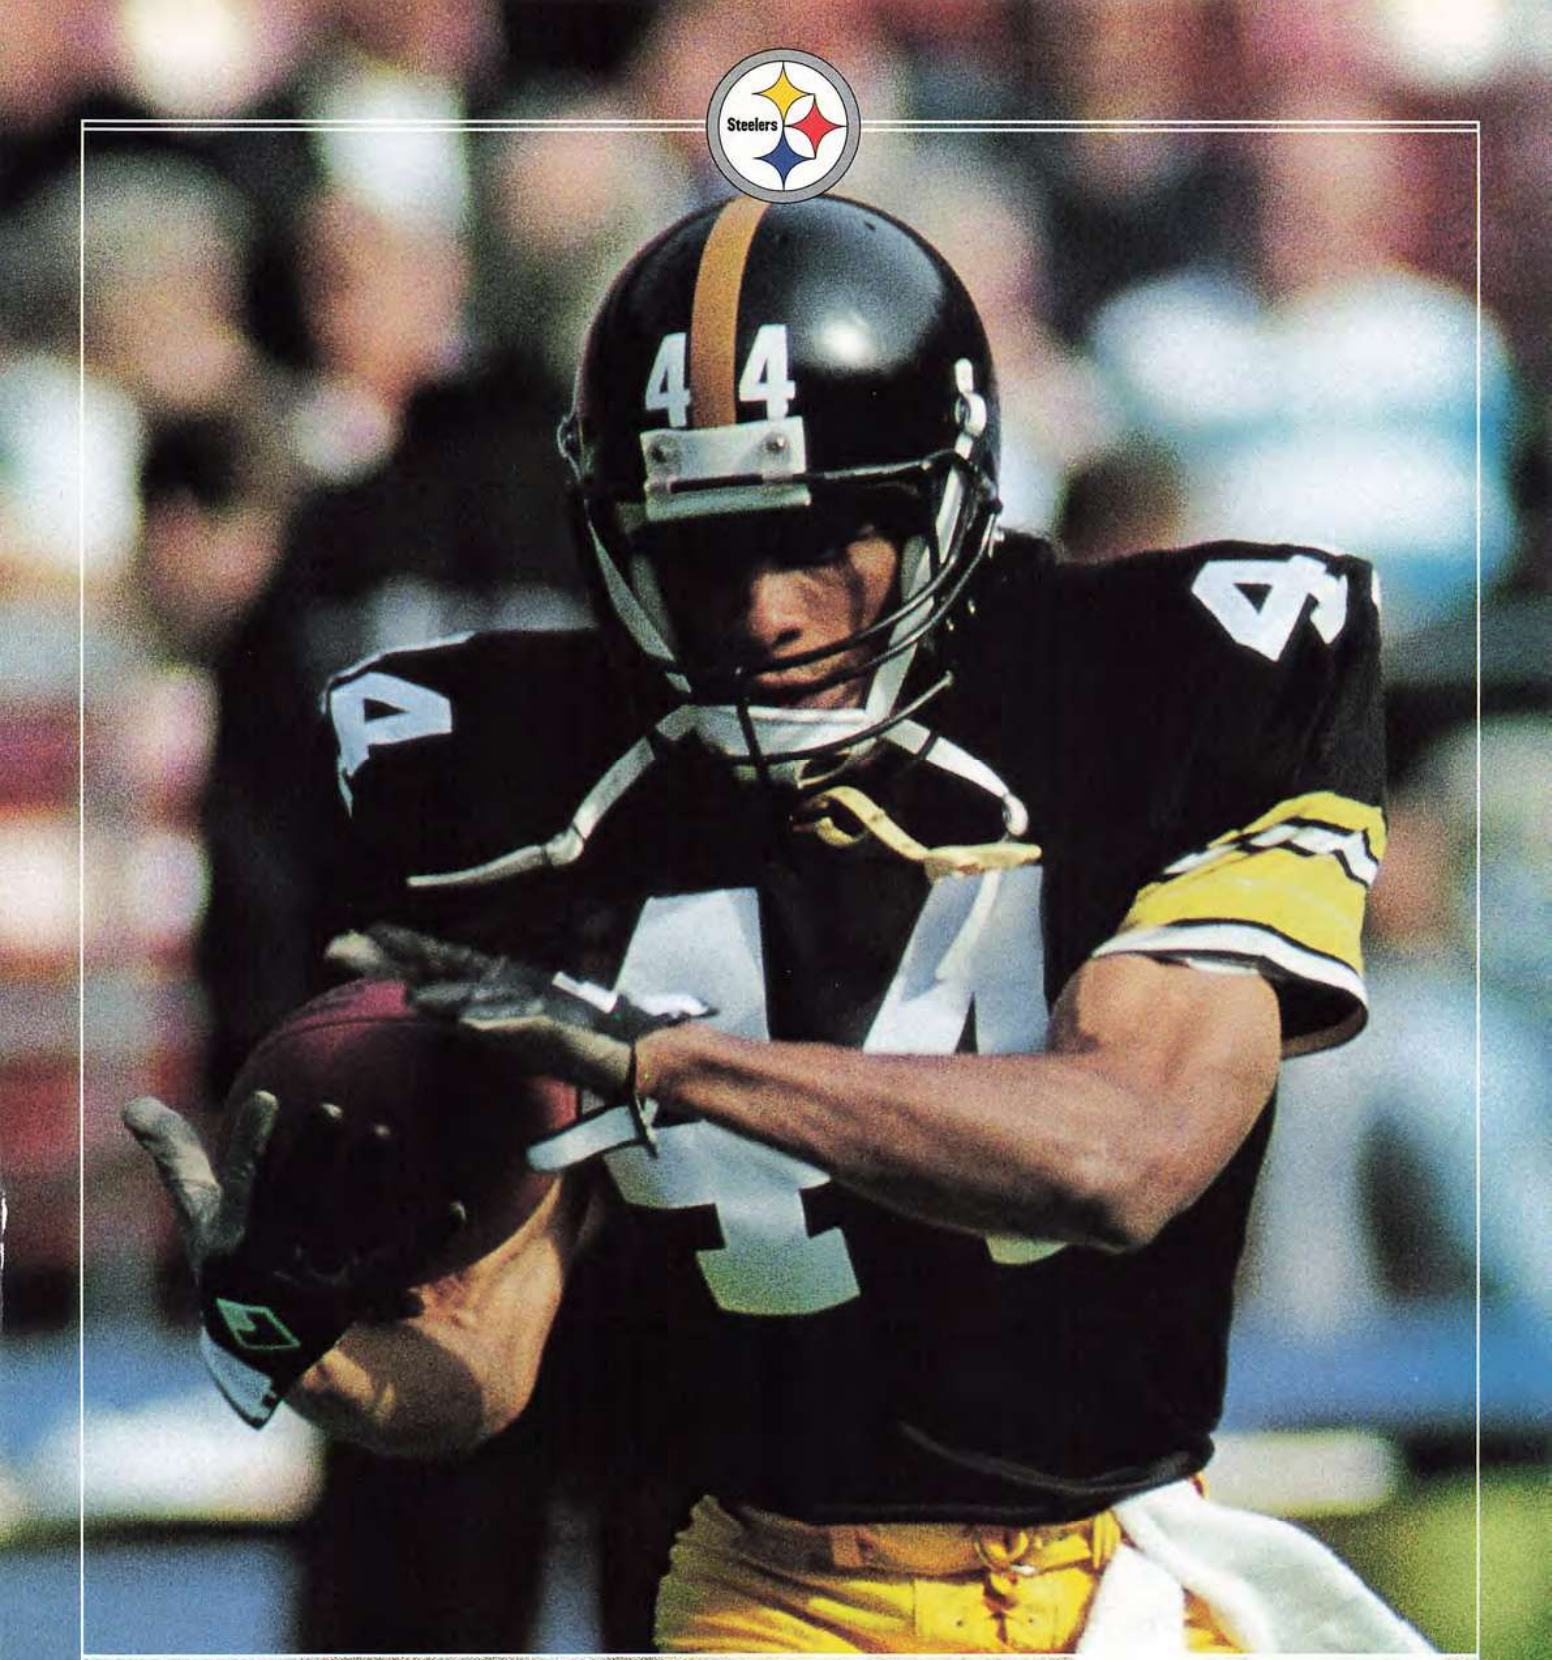
CARNELL LAKE
Strong Safety
6-1 205 3rd year
UCLA

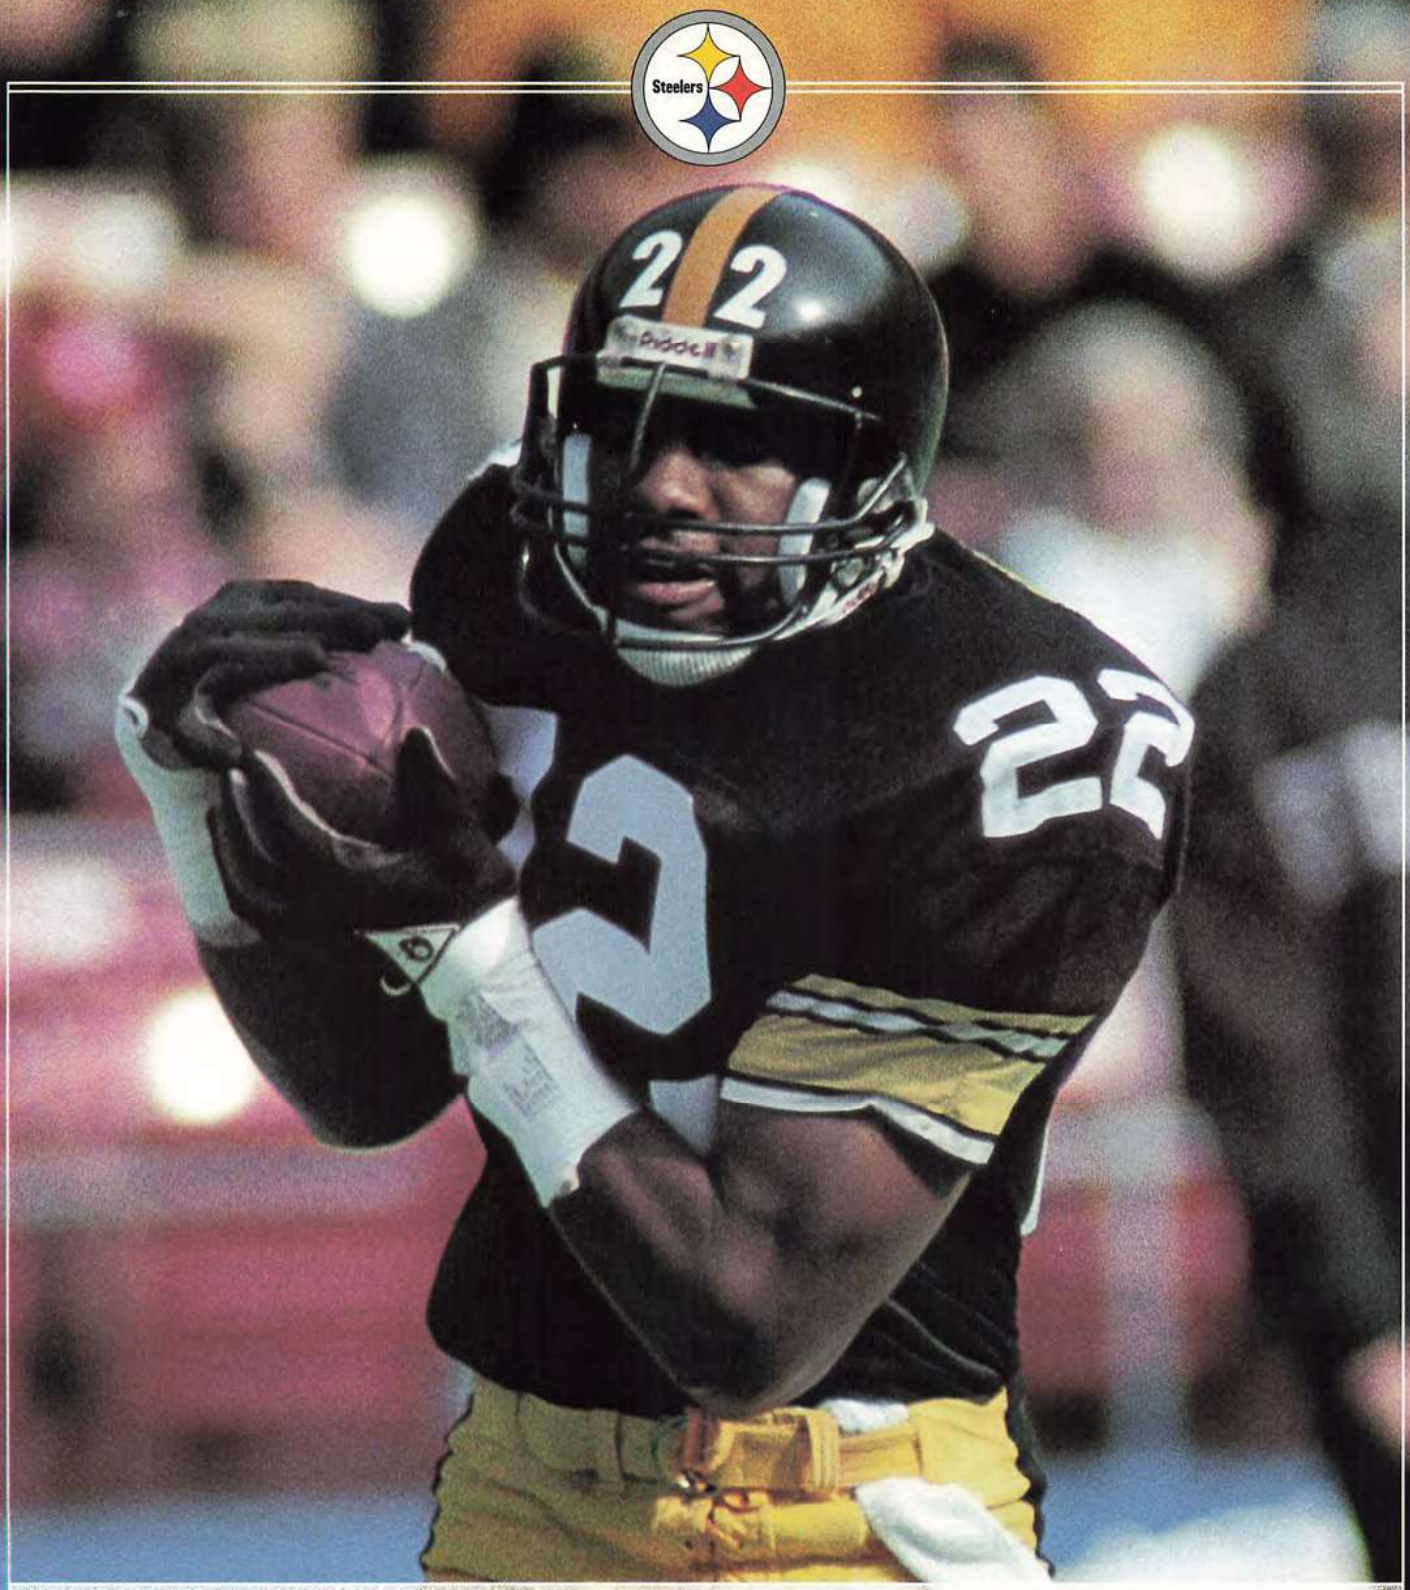
An intense and physical defender, he has started all 31 games played in two-year NFL career... Made position change as a rookie to strong safety from college position of linebacker... Named Steelers' 1989 rookie of the year when he led the team with five fumble recoveries and was the leading tackler in postseason with 15 total... Provides excellent run support from secondary and is also valuable in coverage... A very intelligent player and excellent all-around athlete... Was inducted into Culver City (Cal.) High School Hall of Fame last May and he has established a scholarship in his name at the school.



44

DAVID JOHNSON
Cornerback
6-0 185 3rd year
Kentucky

A very pleasant surprise last season in first year as starter, third year in NFL... Started every game except the opener, taking over left cornerback position... Finished with two interceptions, 69 tackles (59 solo), four special teams tackles... Made his first start week two vs. Houston and responded by returning interception 26 yards for a touchdown... Was primarily a special teams player as a rookie... Began his college career as a wide receiver before starting his final three seasons at cornerback... Was a college teammate with Steelers center Dermontti Dawson... Was married last March 16.



22

LARRY GRIFFIN
Safety
6-0 202 6th year
North Carolina

The most versatile player in the Steelers' secondary, having game experience at both cornerback and both safety positions... Is primarily used as an extra defender in the nickel and dime packages... Had career-best four interceptions last year to rank second on the team despite making just three starts... Began his NFL career as an eighth-round draft choice of the Houston Oilers and played in three games for them in 1986... Joined Steelers as a strike replacement player in 1987 and has remained to play in 51 games since... Has nine career interceptions and in 1988 was the Steelers' leading tackler on special teams with 12.

A pleasant surprise as an 11th-round draft choice last year... Played in all 16 games with increased playing time in second half of season... Made move to offensive line as rookie after playing on defensive line for final two seasons in college... Began college career as defensive back and also played tight end... Was one of just five 11th-round draft choices who made opening day rosters in 1990... In off-season is studying for bachelors degree at Duquesne.

GARY JONES
Safety
6-1 203 2nd year
Texas A & M

A promising young athlete who will press for more playing time in 1991... Was primarily a special teams player as a 1990 rookie, but gained experience in secondary in second half of season... Has been very productive since being drafted on ninth round last year... Made first NFL start week two last season vs. Houston in dime defense and played in all 16 games... In college was a three-year starter at cornerback and free safety... Lives in Tyler, Texas in the off-season.

DELTON HALL
Cornerback
6-1 208 5th year
Clemson

An extremely physical and tough defender and a former second-round draft choice... Was a starter as a rookie in 1987, but has been hampered by injuries each of past three seasons... Scored two touchdowns in his rookie year, one on a 50-yard fumble return and the other on a 25-yard interception return... Was the Steelers' rookie of the year in 1987 as well as NFL all-rookie... One of three defensive backs the Steelers drafted on the first four rounds in 1987, he was the ninth defensive back taken overall that year... Was starter at left cornerback at beginning of 1990 season before suffering knee injury on opening day which held him out for four weeks.

A lot you can feel good about.

The finest fruits and vegetables available. That is what the produce department at Giant Eagle is all about. Not just apples and oranges, broccoli and cauliflower, but exotic fruits and vegetables as well, such as blood oranges and mangos, pearl onions and ginger root. We also have fruit baskets for special occasions, holidays or "Get Well" wishes. So, whether you have a specific produce need, or just have to plan your weekly menu, trust the Produce Department at Giant Eagle to fulfill your every expectation of variety and freshness.

Especially the produce.
